

Linda Hoagland

Linda Hoagland has lived in Lafayette, LA, for the past 5 years. Prior to that, she lived in six different states and six different countries.

Linda has five college degrees (1 associate, 2 Bachelors, 3 Masters) and has been employed in such diverse jobs as nursing (Singapore), university professor (China), telephone operator (Scotland) and Social Worker (United States). She currently rents out her houseboat in the Atchafalaya Basin, hoping that guests will have a chance to experience the beauty of the bayou before it disappears in 50 years time.

Linda is ordained and available to perform weddings, baptisms, funerals and other occasions. To date she's performed ten weddings including same sex weddings with proceeds donated to the Fellowship.
